1. Visitor to the Council re:
Health Care

Sandra Gresham, came to speak about establishing telehealth clinics to serve Indian communities. She says that this could be a way into Federal recognition for state tribes.

2. Request from Kolomoki for $2600 from Kolomoki for interpretive signage (tabled until next month).

Ongoing Business

1. Traveling trunks for education

Wallsmith: Tabled until April

Nicklas and Altman: Policy/procedures to be established after the number of trunks is decided.

2. Request for Study

Nicklas: visited the site of the Gwinnett County mound that was mentioned to the Council by a resident. He took a photo and found historical mention of the mound. He and Wallsmith will check the site by UTM in order to determine whether any prior research has been done.
